McDonald's Offers Safe Trick or Treat Plan

Fewer chocolate bars and candied apples will find their way into little "trick of treater's" Holloween sacks this year if George Booker, manager of the McDonald's restaurant in Seaside, has anything to say about it.

Citing the increase in the number of tragedies resulting from children biting into "treats" that have been laced with LSD, razor blades or other dangerous devices, the Seaside McDonald's and all San Francisco and Monterey Bay Area McDonald's are offering Halloween gift certificates.

Currently available, the certificates are redeemable for any regular fifteen cent soft drink and can be purchased for only five cents each or in booklets of 20 for $1. Besides their safety value, the certificates make a unique treat for hobgoblins, pirates and fairy princesses who come knocking at the door.

"In offering the trick-or-treat safety plan, we hope to lessen parents' worry about hazardous substances hidden in candy, fruits and other hand-outs and restore a little of the old-fashioned Halloween fun," Booker explained.

McDonald's also recommends that trick or treating be done before dark and only in familiar neighborhoods. Costumes should be fireproof and have reflective surfaces attached both front and back. Any unusual incidences occurring in the area of any McDonald's restaurant on Halloween can be reported to the manager who will immediately call the fire department, police or other authorities.

Seaside Receives Tax Funds

The City of Seaside will receive $20,500 this week from a scheduled $34.1 million October distribution statewide of funds under the Bradley-Burns Local Sales and Use Tax law, Board of Equalization Member George R. Reilly announced recently. The County of Monterey will receive $36,250.

Included in the October 1972 distribution of local taxes administered by the State Board of Equalization are the following totals statewide:

Bradley-Burns 1 percent local sales and use tax payment to cities and counties, $26,650,000; the new 1/4 percent local sales and use tax payment to counties for county local transportation fund, $5,875,000; San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District transaction and use tax, $1,600,000, and Southern California Rapid Transit District transaction and use tax, $1,000, for a total distribution of $34,126,000.

The funds are scheduled to be distributed by the State Controller to city or county treasurers by mail or deposit on October 18.

The $34.1 million comes from August prepayments of the above taxes, due September 20. The remainder of money due local government for the third calendar quarter will be disbursed in November and December.

Barbeque at Fairgrounds For Poyner

Friends and supporters of Roger Poyner, candidate for Supervisor from the 4th District, will enjoy a steak barbecue next Sunday afternoon, October 29, at the Monterey County Fairgrounds. Mr. Poyner will be on hand to cook the steaks, serve beans, salad and garlic bread and greet his many admirers.

Entertainment for the festive affair will include the O'Gara Family Band, consisting of five members including three children, and John Baldwin and Jinnifer Light, stars of the local productions of Camelot and The King and I. The latter will sing selections from these musicals.

Teachers from the Monterey Bay Teachers Association, which has formally endorsed Mr. Poyner's candidacy, have been working hard to make sure the afternoon will turn out to be a happy and relaxing occasion.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling 375-8942.

Seasider Honored By Army

Cleady Phillips

Cleady Phillips of Seaside has been officially commended from Department of Army for her outstanding performance of duties as personnel clerk-typist in the Personnel Actions Section, Military Personnel Branch, Personnel and Administration Division, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Administration and Logistics, US Army Combat Developments Experimentation Command at Fort Ord.

The list of similar honors she has received is almost as long as the name of her office.

She was presented with the award in Headquarters ceremonies, for her exceptional ability and efficiency. She was also presented with a Ten Year pin representing that number of years she has been in civil service. Mrs. Phillips is the wife of Elmer Phillips, niece of the Rev. G. E. Ellis and the mother of five.

League of Women Voters Supports 'A'

"Rhe League of Women Voters supports Proposition A on the November 7th ballot," says Mrs. Tom Houston, president of the Monterey Peninsula League. "It must be passed before further development robs us of the scenic and recreational open space which should be preserved for the future."

The passage of Proposition A, establishing the Monterey Peninsula Regional Park and Open Space District, will provide means for acquiring vital open space lands for enjoyment and recreational use by the citizens of the area.

The League believes that only through public acquisition of land now in private ownership can we retain the green belts and wooded and shore areas that are essential to the beauty and feeling of breathings space which we value.

By means of a tax levy of not over 10¢ per $100 of assessed valuation, agumented by federal and state aid, the district could raise the funds, which local governments are unable to supply, for purchase of green belts along scenic roads, biking and hiking trails and parks close to population centers where they are most needed.

The district does not duplicate the function of the County Parks Department, which has county-wide responsibility and cannot fill the special needs of the Monterey Peninsula, which because of its unique natural beauty, is enjoyed by the entire county. The League endoreses passage of Proposition A and usrges support of all voters.

Education Week Observed

The Monterey Peninsula Unified School District will join other schools in observing American Education Week, October 22-28.

"Make Education Top Priority" is the theme of the week, sponsored annually by the national Parent Teachers Association organization, the National Education Associationm and American Legion and the United States Office of Education.

Dr. James Harrison, associate superintendent for Monterey schools, said the public is welcome to visit schools throughout the week.

The purpose of American Education Week is to increase public understanding of school goals, achievements, needs and problems, and to stimulate public support for the schools.

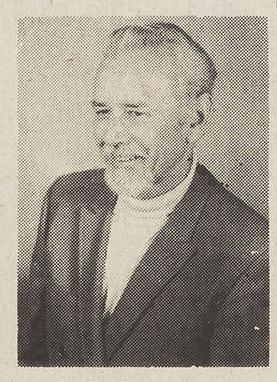
(In the absence of Andy Barragan)



A.E. Barragan

I read a lot. Everytime I sit still for one moment, I usually have a book in my hand. The other day I was reading a book by Marjorie Holmes (Love and Laughter). She wrote an article in the book entitled "We'll Come."

I would like to share it with you wonderful people:

WE'LL COME

It seems such a pity that the scattered members of families almost never get together except in times of loss.

Someone dies. Someone dearly beloved. And suddenly the telegrams and letters begin to fly, the phone calls are being made. People who correspond only at Christmas now send wires, special deliveries. People who haven't heard each other's voices in months, even years, are communicating: "Oh, no! I'm so sorry--when did it happen? We'll come. We want to come."....

We'll come. We want to come ... Suddenly it seems imperative. It is a compelling desire. For the news that has summoned us in the cause of sorrow has warm and quite wonderful overtones. We must go, we must draw together in this hour when one of our own has passed. We want to, for the sake of that person, but also for our own. To comfort and support each other. And oh, to see each other again--brothers

Moser Tells Rotarians Seaside Needs More Parks

Seaside needs more parks and open sapce. That was the message given by Earl Moser to the Seaside Rotary Club at its October 16 meeting.

Moser is chairman of the Committee for Open Space. He quoted from a report prepared in 1970 for the City of Seaside on the Recreation Element of the General Plan. The report states that the city should have 125 acres of open space for recreation. Actually it has but 20 acres,-and this includes the 3 acres on which the City Hall and its parking area are located.

The talk was on the subject of the Open Space District which will appear on the November 7 ballot as Proposition "A." Moser said that the Board of the proposed district would be helpful to communities such as Seaside and Marina in providing funds and coordinating effort for obtaining open space before it is too late. He suggested that the Board would operate on the basis of transferring such lands to the established jurisdictions for development and operation as recreation areas.

Questions which followed the explanation of Proposition "A" indicated great interest by the 35 Rotarians present. Moser's impression was that concensus of the group was favorable.

ARMY RECRUITER

Hi everybody. TODAY'S ARMY NEWS is for the young woman who wants to get ahead in life. There are many ways this can be done, but the iedal way is take advantage of our COLLEGE JUNIOR PROGRAM and our STUDENT OFFICER PROGRAM.

The College Junior Program is an action-packed course, open to young women who have completed their junior year of college. It's timed and planned to give you an insight into the opportunities offered to college graduates as officers in the Women's Army Corps. As a cadet corporal in the Women's Army Corps Enlisted Reserve, you spend four summer weeks at Fort McClellan, Alabama, with other students from all over the nation. They're busy weeks of training, and learning, and fun, shared with new friends. Toward the end of this time, you'll see and meet your male Army counterparts. You'll watch them demonstrate military tactics, and join them in social activities.

You'll be paid a cadet corporal's salary. All your transportation, from home to For McClellan and back, will be paid by the Army. You'll also receive uniforms, excellent meals, and the best of medical care at no expense. You'll be living with other girls from other colleges, from all parts of the country. In a modern, comfortable dormitory.

You'll start with basics of Army ways, learning good grooming and good housekeeping habits. After you have completed the College Junior Program, you'll be under no obligation to continue in the Reserves. But when you have received your college degree, you may apply for a commission, as second lieutenant, in the Women's Army Corps. Or you may wish to apply to take part in the Student Officer Program during your senior year. It is open to those who have completed the College Junior Program. And only a limited number of applicants are selected. Your qualifications and acceptance are based on your standing in the College Junior Course.

If you are selected, you receive the monthly gross pay and allowances of a corporal which is $346.80, while you are a full-time senior at college, studying for your degree. (College is at your expense.) You'll have other service privileges, too. You can shop at the post exchange and commissary, attend dances, and take part in sports in any Army, Air Force, Navy or Marine installation. And the best medical and dental care will be available to you without cost. You will also have 30-days leave per year with pay. If school vacations exceed the time you are entitled to, you may obtain extra leave without pay.

For more information about the opportunities in TODAY'S ARMY, please contact us at 431 Webster St., Monterey or call 372-4742/372-0553.

Association Names Wood

Assemblyman Bob Wood was named by the California Peace Officers Association as one of the 10 best Legislators in the State Assembly on law enforcement bills.

The Peace Officers Association made public their evaluation in their September newsletter mailed out to members. The organization primarily represents police and sheriff departments throughout California in the State Legislature.

Legislators were selected on the basis of the number of votes they have cast in the Assembly on behalf of law enforcement bills supported by the Association and on the number of votes cast against bills the Association feels would be detrimental to strong local police action.

On the rating scale, Wood was selected as having the seventh best record in the 80 member Assembly. Of the 20 bills selected that Wood had voted on, the Monterey County Assemblyman supported the law enforcement group on 18 of those occasions.

Spacecraft on Display at Northridge

Future astronauts may return from space in an airplane that flies without wings. This strange looking craft is called a "lifting body" because its shape acts as a wing and will be on display at Northridge Center, October 28 to November 2, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

In the future, the "lifting body" could be used to shuttle astronauts back and forth between orbiting space stations. It would re-enter the atmosphere like today's space capsules, but would be able to land on earth like an airplane.

Now you can see a full-size model of an air force lifting body concept. Admission is free.

Servicemen Honored

"From Valley Forge to Vietnam, American servicemen have responded to their nation's call to dugy," 'resident Nixon has stated. "That call has often led to loneliness, danger--and, for some, death.

In response to that call, American servicemen have acted with unsurpassed valor and devotion and have demonstrated to the enemies of freedom all over the world, that free men and women will defend the principles of a free society.

"After each war or conflict, these dedicated Americans who performed so valiantly as servicemen have returned to build a stronger country--their contribution to our nation, in war and peace, has been invaluable."

Today there are more than 28 million living Americans who have served in our Armed Forces and we join in paying them tribute on this recent Veterans' Day 1972, in our thoughts, in the display of the American flag on our homes and businesses and public buildings in special services in their honor in our churches, our schools and public ceremonies.

HOW IT BEGAN

The selection of an All American team started in 1899, when former Yale star Walter Camp named 11 players and called them the greatest at their respective positions.

Seaside Ripples

and sisters long apart. Aunts and uncles and cousins. Yes, and second cousins, too. The whole clan.

So many of them, arriving so unexpectedly from so many places. It is a revelation, sweet and rather startling. Not only that they are so numerous, but that they too should want to come. In this busy world where distances are great and relatives tend to become strangers, blood ties still are strong.

How good it is to see them, how consoling. And despite the sadness of the occasion, how pleasant in so many ways. The visits so solemnly begun drift off into laughter and good talk: "I hadn't realized you had so many children. That makes me a great aunt, doesn't it? And they're so pretty--whose side do they take after, ours or Mac's?" ... "Now let's see, whatever became of Lou's girl, Irene?" ... "Remember the time Dad spanked all of us for going swimming that day the waves were so big?"

Reminiscences. The matching of statistics. News. And the old family friends who are so much a part of the past that they too belong: "Your papa came running to our house the night you were born." ... "Your mother and I went to school together." The family doctor who saw you all through so many illnesses is there. The neighbors from the old house on Seneca St.

They too wanted to come. Out of respect to the one who is gone, yes, that is their excuse. But mainly to claim their own memories of the lost days once again, days in which he played a part, the precious days that are past.

And as you all sit around laughing, talking, eating the food the neighbors have brought in, you remark: "How Dad would have enjoyed this. Oh, how happy he would have been to be with all of us." And you add, "If only people could have get-togethers like this when we're all alive!" And everyone agrees.

But we can't. This too we acknowledge. We are so busy, so far apart. It takes the deep seriousness of death to draw us, to make us realize that all lives that relate to us are dear--these scattered lives. And when it is all over, though you rejoice at having claimed them once more, it is sad to say good-by. Then a dear little woman, strong in faith, says simply: "We'll all meet again. Don't worry, it's all right, we'll all meet again."

Again something warm and wonderful comes over you. You realize, "Why yes, that's right. He'll be there too--and we'll all be together again!"

I thought I would share that with you. It is so true. People have been known to go to the bank to borrow money to "go back home" when tragedy strikes. Only to spend some of that time in weeping and sorrow for the departed one. Would it not be more enjoyable to sit down and drop your relatives a line and each of you make a "date" to meet at the 'old home place" at a certain time, thereby enjoying each other's company in a joyous reunion? Try it--You'll like it!

Mr. B (my boss), received a gift the other day from Mrs. B. (his boss), in the form of a ped-o-meter. He tied it on himself and went for his daily. We discovered that we have been underestimating the distance Andy has been walking daily. And he never misses. Come rain or come shine. And he is truly looking good.

Last week he went over and visited one of our new advertisers, Mr. Walter Norwick, of WALTER'S Men's and Boy's Store. He is convinced that Mr. Norwick, who managed the men's and boy's store at MBS for many years, has one of the finest selections of conventional and sophisticated fashions at popular prices of any store in Central California. He personally recommends WALTER'S highly.

Remember the article I wrote last week about Prudential Life Insurance Co.? It produced results. They say "All's well that ends well." We shall soon find out.

Hearts that are united through the medium of sorrow will not be separated by the glory of happiness. Love that is cleansed by tears will remain eternally pure and beautiful.

OEO, under our County program, has proposed a transportation element which has great promise of providing transportation services for the poor. The general detail of procedures was outlined by our County Administrator as quoted below.

"The Transportation Program has the objective of providing essential transportation services for the poor through the setting up of transportation centers in Salinas, Seaside, Pajaro, and Greenfield, using existing OEO vehicles. In addition, one vehicle and driver would be assigned to the Monterey Peninsula Volunteers Bureau, and the balance of the vehicles would be assigned to OEO headquarters for pool and group activity use. The program proposed that transportation be provided to such as County Buildings, Food Stamp Offices, Hospitals and Medical Centers, Human Resources Development, Social Security, and other service agencies. The scheduling of the trips will be flexible, so that transportation services can be tailored to meet the needs of the Community and the persons served. As regards new positions, the Director would manage the overall program; the 1/2 time receptionists would perform keeping and receptionist duties at each of the four transportation centers; one full time driver will be assigned to each of the four centers; one 1/2 time driver will be assigned to the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Bureau; and the other 1/2 time drivers will be assigned on a pool basis for special assignments and relief of other drivers. Consultant and contract services is for county administrative overhead. Travel expense is for vehicle operating costs and staff travel. Space costs and rental is for rental of space at the four transportation centers. Other costs are for tools, auto parts, telephone and utilities."

The Board of Supervisors has approved the TRANSPORTATION PROPOSAL and the OEO Director is authorized to proceed with the necessary details to put this important plan into effect.

Chamber of Commerce Progress Report

by Verlaine Crawford, Executive Director

If you happen to get the Sentinal on Wednesday morning and don't have plans for lunch, why not join us for our General Membership luncheon at the Holiday Inn on the Beach, October 25 at 12 noon. Do give the Chamber a call to let us know you are coming: 394-6501.

Last Friday I heard John Kehoe, Director of Consumer Affairs for the State of California, talk to the members of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce. He is an interesting speaker and has a long list of creditionals and experience which qualifies him for the job of expert on Consumerism.

Mr. Kehoe's personal opinion is that government should not get too involved in business, because too much interference can sometimes hurt the consumer through too much regulation, which leads to increased expenses and eventually raises prices.

As Director of Consumer Affairs, Kehoe mentioned that he is currently receiving 8000 written complaints a month about auto repair problems along. He says that in 9 out of 10 cases that the problems stem from a breakdown in communications between the buyer and seller. But the 1 out of the 10 complaints can possibly be fraud.

The Bureau of Automotive Repair is now licensing auto repair businesses and there are currently 40,000 licensed facilities in the state. It is advisable to always ask to see the state license before allowing work to be done on your car. This way the consumer can more easily be protected from fraudelent mechanics and service station attendents.

The State Bureau of Automotive Repair has also installed a Watts Line (a telephone number you can call direct to Sacramento free of charge) for consumers who have problems with auto repairmen (The number is listed with every repairman who has been licensed). Before you use the Watts Line, it is important to try just one more time to straighten things out with the repairman yourself.

Mr. Kehoe mentioned that the state now has a Bureau for TV Repair, home furnishings, door-to-door salesmen, and many other areas of business activity.

The State will be sending the Seaside Chamber the Handy Guide to Consumer Information they have published, so that we may help people who have a complaint against a business for what they feel could be a fraudelent or deceptive practice.

I asked where the Better Business Bureau fits in to this program, and Mr. Kehoe answered that Consumer Affairs is a state administrative effort to help answer complaints. The Better Business Bureau is a private organization doing a similar service, but with more paperwork. They are really two separate efforts to help solve similar problems.

More information will be coming to the Seaside Chamber from the State in the next few weeks.

The next Board of Directors meeing of the Chamber of Commerce will be Thursday, October 26, at 8 a.m. at the Chamber office. Members and guests are welcome.

REVENUE SHARING

REVENUE SHARING: The period we are about to enter is - in fact - a real challenge for local government. We must develop plans for the most effective utilization of revenue sharing funds and if there is to be one guideline to follow, it must be; use the funds for our cities' most pressing needs.

The original intent of Federal Revenue Sharing was to take the burden off the local taxpayer. However, the Revenue Sharing Bill, as finally passed, prohibits these funds from being applied so as to directly reduce taxes. The property tax bills you will receive on November 1, 1972 will reflect approximately $.27 overall reduction in Seaside - from $11.66 to $11.39. Your Board of Supervisors deserve commendations because they reduced county tax assessments by $.40.

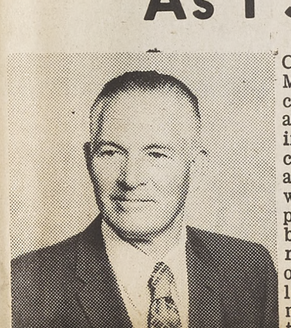
Are you aware that since July 1970 the City of Seaside has been practicing Revenue Sharing with all the incorporated cities within the County of Monterey?! By a signed agreement with Carmel, Del Rey Oaks, Gonzales, Greenfield, King City, Monterey, Pacific Grove, Salinas, Sand City and Soledad we share $55,000 Gas Tax 2106 funds with these cities. We voluntarily agreed to reduce Seaside's population figure by 15,656, which represented the population Fort Ord lying within the City of Seaside. For example, Monterey with a population of 26,000 receives annually from Seaside $8,000 under our Gas Tax 2106 revenue sharing agreement. Incidentally, Monterey also has more than 10,000 military population (5,000 La Mesa Village, 2,500 DLI, and 2,500 NPGS, Fleet Weather Station and Coast Guard) for which they receive in excess of $165,000 annual state subventions but hare with no one! Yet Seaside, which voluntarily shares its subventions, is frequently criticized when bus transportation subsidy formulas, or other assessments based on population, are levied upon us.

My personal goal is to reduce taxes in Seaside next year. (And I'm not seeking reelection!) One method: Resubmit our request for Fort Ord annexation - up to and including East Garrison with a proviso that in the event that Marina incorporates two (2) years hence that part of Fort Ord would then be transferred concurrently to Marina. The $250,000 annual subventions that would accrue, or $500,000 in two (2) years, would not be lost to either Seaside or Marina. As it is now these monies are being distributed to all 407 cities in the state. How can our sister cities on the peninsula or Salinas justify the loss of this revenue? I would propose that Seaside continue its revenue sharing of 2106 funds with all the cities if the new annexation were approved as proposed supra.

I also submit that if LAFCO would not approve our new annexation application that Seaside also terminate its present revenue sharing agreement by giving written notice of termination sixty (60) days in advance in accordance with the terms specified by all parties to this agreement.

Either way, we could substantially reduce the Seaside homeowner's tax!

As I See It



BY MEL VERCOE

Would a dictatorship work well in America? Perhaps not. Dictators sometimes have a tendency to become overbearing, such as Portugal's Salazar, or plain cantankerous, such as Charles De Gualle and AFL-CIO President George Meany, or womewhat unresponsive to the wishes and needs of their people, such as Batista, Hitler, Franco, and , in the eyes of many citizens, President Nixon.

The present amusing conflict between George Meany and his 13 million restless subjects points up rather vividly the great danger of placing too much power in the hands of one man. Virtually the entire AFL-DIO membership wants to go all out to boot Pres. Nixon out of Washington, D.C. Many observers who don't understand George Meany's motives think he has been out in the sun too long, but there is more to it than that.

Mr. Meany wants the war to continue, in spite of his rhetoric to the contrary, and he knows that Mr. Nixon will continue the war, but he can't risk openly supporting Nixon. However, it is enough, in his opinion, to assure Nixon's reelection to simply with-hold general union support from McGovern, and this he is doing by his stern decree that the union as a whole remain strictly neutral, or else.

Union leaders in the state of Colorado openly defied Mr. Meany and told him what he could do with his decree, but at a AFL-CIO leadership meeting in Sacramento last week no such courage was present except for a small handful of members who were outvoted. And for all practical purposes, then, membership dues could be greatly reduced by dispensing with most of the several hundred union leaders who were at Sacramento and who are supposed to help formulate union policies. All we really need is a weekly bulletin telling union members what Mr. Meany wants them to think and do and how to do it.

If a dictatorship can work that well with over 13 million hard-working ordinary American citizens, then we must recognize that maybe the rest of the country could be as easily coerced into accepting rule by dictatorship. This should be a fairly good reason to watch for telltale signs, and several are already evident. We are deliberately uninformed and misinformed and lied to by people in very high places, and we actually find this quite acceptable. We should be but are not alarmed that for over ten years we have allowed ourselves to be intimidated into being sheep with the implication that opposition to our disastrous foreign policy is unpatriotic. And mothers are now asking, "How can I teach my child that honesty is the best policy, when the child is old enough to read about the Watergate affair and the crooked wheat deal and the Pentagon papers?"

We have come a long way during the past 196 years. I would suggest that mothers keep newspapers away from their children, so that they won't grow up totally confused, at least until they are old enough to vote, assuming that we still have the right to vote when that time comes.

Letter to the Editor

Editor: On November 7, Californians will decide by their vote on Proposition 20 whether or not our coast will be saved.

Simply stated, Proposition 20 calls for the preparation of a statewide coastal plan to guarantee that future coastal development will be undertaken in an orderly fashion.

The plan would be submitted to the Legislature in 1976. While the plan is being prepared, new construction along the coast would be subject to approval by local commissions.

Consider this fact: California has 1,072 miles of coastline, but only 263 miles are legally available for public access. And, if something is not done immediately, we will continue to lose access to publicly owned tidelands and beaches.

Over a million dollars will probably be spent by wealthy special interests to defeat Proposition 20. Their campaign tactics are desgined to deceive and confuse the voters. They want our few remaining miles of beaches left as they are--available for development by them in any way they want.

I am convinced that, unless Proposition 20 is approved, the "public be damned" attitude of the special interests will prevail.

The wealthy opponents of Proposition 20 include Pacific Gas and Electric, Standard Oil, Irvine Company, Union Oil, Southern California Edison, Title Insurance and Trust Company, Bechtel Corporation, Southern Pacific Land Company and a host of other developers.

The Proposition 20 proponents lack money but not numbers. They include, to name a few, the Sierra Club, 60 state legislators, both United States Senators from California, the American Association of University Women, Common Cause, the American Institute of Architects, and the League of Women Voters. These supporters are truly representative of the public interest.

I urge you to consider carefully the groups supporting and opposing Proposition 20 and then ask: Which group do I believe represents the public interest?

To me, the answer is obvious. That is why I will vote YES on Proposition 20 and urge you to do likewise.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES R. MILLS

California State Senate

Henry Levi Kirk

Henry Kir, a resident of Seaside for the past 17 years was born in Coatsville, Pennsylvania. Since his father was in the U.S. Army, Henry travelled not only within the limits of the United States, but accompanied his father in his overseas assignments. After being a world traveler as a guest of the U.S. Government, Henrys' father was assigned to Fort Ord California in 1955. Since 1955, Henry has attended school in the Monterey Unified School District and graduated from Monterey High in 1971. He is presently attending Monterey Peninsula College where he is majoring in Police Science.

Henry is very interested in Law Enforcement. One of the goals he has set for himself will materialize nest year. At that time he will become a police officer with the New York Police Department.

Being as interested in law enforcement as Henry is, he started working with the Seaside Police Department approximately 2 1/2 years ago. In June of 1971 Henry started working with the Community Relations Division within the police department. He knows and has stated many times that one of the most important things is the line of communication between the citizens and their police. Because of this feeling, he has worked very hard to realize this better understanding within the community. Even though he is only working in a part-time position, he has worked many more hours than are required.

Henry is a very good example of a young person that was at one time in very rough water, but he himself took inventory and decided that he would find smoother water. This only proves, anyone can set his goal, work towards it, and achieve it. When Henry leaves his position with the Community Relations Division, he will be hard to replace.

Halloween Safety

"Trick-or-Treat Time" in Monterey County will be observed on Tuesday, October 31, 1972 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. To avoid hazards and to prevent accidents, we suggest these safety rules.

FOR THE CHILDREN —

1. It's hard for you to see when you wear a mask. Use make-up instead.
2. Wait until you get home before you taste the "goodies." Let your parents see the treats before you eat them.
3. Wear bright costumes — they are easier for motorists to see. Reflective tape on costumes is a good idea.
4. If you carry a pumpkin, light it with a flashlight . . . not candle.
5. Cross streets only at corners . . . never between parked cars.
6. Look in all directions before crossing the street.
7. Watch for — and obey — all traffic signals.
8. Wait on the curb — not in the street — before crossing.
9. Stay in your own neighborhood.
10. Be polite and courteous at all times.

FOR THE PARENTS —

2. Parents — or a responsible adult — should go along with the children.
3. Tell your children to bring the "treats" home before eating them — so that you can see what has been given them.
4. Don't let children travel in "gangs." A group of 3 or 4 is best—for safety — and for the benefit of householders.
5. Children should visit only those places where porch lights — or other welcoming lights — are turned on.
6. Only young children should participate. Children 12 or older should be discouraged from taking part in the observance.

FOR THE HOUSEHOLDER —

1. If you wish to welcome "trick-or-treaters," turn on your porch lights from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, October 31.
2. Offer only factory-wrapped or sealed treats to avoid problems or misunderstandings.

MOTORISTS! —

Please be especially watchful during 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. when children will be out.

A PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Soul Food

by Rev. Richard J. Hooper
Director, Mission:Possible

Did you ever get a look at the Peninsula from the Monterey Hills? If you live in the hills you probably have a magnificant view from your picture window; thousands of lights of the city - Seaside. I wonder if it bothers anyone that the rich in the hills really depend on the ghettos of the flatlands for their view? Rather ironic isn't it? I might laugh if I didn't live in the hills myself. I've been in the flatlands all my life until now, part of the people, and their plight. Now I look down on them from the hills, and I sometimes want to cry. What am I doing up here? I feel somewhat ashamed, really.

It is only by chance and luck that I'm up here, really. I was never before, and may never be again. One thing I know is that I can never really leave the people in favor of the suburban ghetto of the hills and feel right about it.

And I also know, having seen from both sides now, that the view and the affluence of the hills has nothing to do with true happiness. I really dig the view, but I know I have been and always can be just as happy anywhere. For happiness is not found in external things, but within one's own soul. If one finds true happiness, circumstances of life can not change it. Inner happiness can be taken with you anywhere, and utilized in any life situation.

How many people really believe that when they finally can get the big house on a hill, or a big car, or a swimming pool, color TV or a boat, that they will then find true happiness? Many people so believe, but they find otherwise because happiness can not be bought. It can not be found in things. It is a state of the heart, the state of the soul. It is a spiritual thing. You can not use material money to buy spiritual happinesss. The universe just doesn't run that way. You can't have your cake and eat it too.

I remember, years ago, working for a company in San Francisco which did research polls. We had certain quotas to meet; so many in this neighborhood and so many in that. So many in such ans such an income bracket; so many causions, so many blacks; so many young people, so many old.

I took tjhe polls in every section of the city, and what I remember most was that when I worked in the predominently black area of the Fillmore, I found more happy and vibrant people there than I did in any other section of the city, especially the rich sections where most people frowned out at me behine latched doors.

This is not honky talk, saying, "be happy with your plight." For I know that perhaps everyone needs to get the things he wants and desires before he can find for himself the truth that material things don't increase happiness. I would, of course, have to agree with the person who said, "money at least makes misery more comfortable." True enough, I suppose. But I think we all want more out of life than that.

Everyone should, if they desire, work to extricate themselves from undesirable life situations and canditions, if for no other reason than to give our children an wqual opportunity to be respected and make their way in a sometimes seemingly uncaring world.

But when we are stuck in unpleasant life situations we should try to remember we are there because of a purpose, perhaps for our pruning, perhaps for our own growth, or sometimes for purposes beyond our understanding. It is only when you have gone through these times of harship or sorrow, and then look back, that you can see clearly that there was a very definate reason why such times had to be.

The fact that many in the ghettos do not understand is that God has not left the poor or the miserable. The Lord Jesus was one with the poor and the outcast. He shares in everyone's plight BECAUSE he has been through it Himself, and triumphed. And he has given us power to do the same if we really want that true power. Unlike many of us, He accepted poverty as a CHOSEN way of life, for He knew that through giving up material things, one finds true richness in the One who brings Eternal happiness.

If you, however, must seek out the things of the world, you must, and that's it, for you obviously need to learn FOR YOURSELVES that these words are not vain pious utterings, but universal Truth. And if you already know these things you are truly blessed.

FORT ORD BPWC

Nine delegates and alternates of the Fort Ord Business and Professional Women's Club attended Peninsula District, California Federation of BPWC, Inc. Fall Conference, held at the beautiful Holiday Inn on Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco, September 30 and October 1.

Representatives who enjoyed the informative workshops on "Politics and You in This Election Year," "Participation through your Membership", and "Membership--What We Have to Offer," were Fort Ord President, Mary Koss and Mary Helen Simpson of Marina, Mary Ellen Harris and Mildred Hopkins of Seaside and Martha Koivisto, E. Jane MacDowell, Shirley O'Day, Clara (Jackie) Rentie and Alberta Ward, all of Monterey.

Another delightful highlight of the session was the Saturday evening banquet, when all had the opportunity to hear the dynamic guest speaker, Frances Jamieson, President Elect, State Federation, as she spoke about "Faith." Guest also enjoyed songs by Harry Kotzen. His accompanist was Eunice Wuensch. District president is Virginia M. Hayn.

During National Business-Women's Week, October 15 through October 21, the Monterey Peninsula's Business and Professional Women's Clubs joined together for a National Business Women's Week dinner, held Friday, October 20, at the Mark Thomas Outrigger on Cannery Row.

Grass Roots Campaigning Increased

"Grass-root" level campaigning is being emphasized during the final weeks of the McGovern-Shriver campaign. Neighborhood Information Centers are now being set up on the peninsula, according to Gary Page at McGovern Headquarters in Monterey.

Located in private homes in every neighborhood, the centers provide an opportunity for personal contact with voters. At each center, the resident will be able to supply campaign information to his neighbors.

The first neighborhood information centers in Seaside are located at the homes of: David Bourns, 1605 Flores Street; Oscar Lawson, 1045 Sonoma Street; Mr. and Mrs. James Rucker, 1405 Mescal Street; Mrs. Pearl Carey, 1231 Olympia; Mrs. Hilda Coleman, 1508 Yosemite Street, Apartment 4; Mrs. Lenora Pinkston, 1816 St. Helena Street.

Anyone interested in having a center in their home should call 372-8041 for more information.

Also underway is precinct canvassing, an intensive door-to-door effort to locate undecided voters and encourage them to vote for McGovern. Canvassing is an initial contact with the voter, and presents an opportunity to distribute literature and to determine the voter's views on candidates and issues. Follow-up contacts with undecided voters will be made later. Approximately one-third of the local precincts have been walked thus far, and volunteers are needed to complete the task prior to the election. Canvassing is done evenings and weekends. Instructions will be given to new volunteers.

Persons wishing to help with canvassing should call McGovern Headquarters immediately. Volunteers are also needed for evening telephone work and for get-out-the vote work on election day.

RETAIN STRONG LEADERSHIP

Still high on the list of critical problems is the increase in crime. Senator Grunsky has supported legislation to control drug abuse, stem the tide of pornography, reduce violent crimes against persons and property and reverse the liberal high court decisions which have tended to tie the hands of law enforcement officers. In recognition of Senator Grunsky's legislative record strengthening law enforcement and improving the administration of justice, he has the official endorsement of the Peace Officers Research Association, which is the political arm of law enforcement officers throughout the State.

It's That Time Again

IT'S ALMOST TIME to say good-night, but before you do, the makers of General Electric clocks want to remind you that Daylight Saving Time ends officially at 2 a.m., the last Sunday in October. So, before you go to bed on the night of the 28th, remember – turn all clocks back one hour.

Paper Cutting to Be Taught

The art of Polish paper cutting, one of the unique folk arts of Poland, will be taught in a special one-night workshop at Monterey Peninsula College Thursday, November 2.

Paper cut-outs, called "wycinanki," come in two basic forms: a single, one-color cut-out, usually rectangular in shape; and a filigree-like round cut-out of black paper pasted on top.

The second style is found primarily in the Lowicz region of Poland, the birthplace of the instructor of the workshop, Wladyslawa Muras. The Lowicz cut-outs continue to show the stylized Renaissance flower and plant motifa, as well as roasters and other colorful birds.

The class will consist of a demonstration of the art of paper cutting and instruction in technique. Students must bring their own scissors, but paper will be provided.

Enrollment will be held through MPC Community Services, 375-9821, ext. 335. $2.50 registration fee will be charged.

Flag Football

The Seaside Parks & Recreation Department is sponsoring an Elementary School Flag Football League. Games are played each Friday starting at 3:45 p.m.

Games this week include Juan Cabrillo vs. Del Rey Woods at Del Rey Woods, Covell vs. Manzanita at Manzanita and Highland vs. Ord Terrace at Ord Terrace.

Ballet Opens Concert Series

Ballet Brio, an ensemble of six, will be presented by the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association on Saturday evening, October 28, at 8:15 p.m. at the Pacikfic Grove Junior High School auditorium, as the first concert of the series.

Thomas Andrew, producer and director of Ballet Brio, was for five seasons engaged as a soloist at the Met. During this period he was commissioned to stage the ballet sequences for Martha and Un Ballo in Maschera. This led to his choreography of Hindemith's "News of the Day" and Stravinsky's "Persephone", both produced under the composer's direction.

In the fall of 1967, Thomas Andrew made his debut as director and choreographer of the San Francisco Opera Ballet. His "Dance of the Hours" (for "La Gioconda") made such a hit it was said to be the beginning of a new era for opera ballet in San Francisco. News reached New York, and in 1968 he choreographed it for 100 dancers for the Radio City Music Hall. At the invitation of the late Ted Shawn he choreographed an entire program for the famous Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, and through a special grant from the U.S. State Department he directed and staged productions of "My Fair Lady" and Truman Capote's "Breakfast at Tiffany's" for Warsaw's Komedia Theater.

Ballet Brio features an ensemble of six dancers, three ballerinas and their cavalier male partners, all with impressive backgrounds. Sandra Balestracci has been featured soloist with the Radio City Music Hall, prima ballerina with the New York City Opera, toured with the American Festival Ballet, and appeared in television specials. Rose Marie Menes toured Europe with the American FESTIVAL Ballet, has been soloist at Radio City Music Hall and the New York City Opera, as well as the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. Georgette Marcel has appeared at Radio City Music Hall, the Dallas Opera, and at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival.

Samuel McManus has performed with the Dallas Opera, and also in a modern work at Jacob's Pillow. William Forsythe studied on full scholarship at the Robert Joffery American Ballet Center in New York, and has danced many solor roles. Christopher Corry worked for eight years with the Southern allet of Atlanta, and at seventeen became a principal dancer with the company. He has also toured with productions of "West Side Story", "My Fair Lady" and "Camelot".

Attendance at the concert is limited to members of the association, and to members of similar associations on a space available basis.

Bazaar Is Scheduled

The Marina Grange, #518 C.W.A. will hold a bazaar and luncheon on November 1 on Carmel Avenue in Marina.

Quakers Tell Their Stand on Major Issues

The Monterey Peninsula Friends Meeting wishes to bring to the attention of the people of Monterey County certain decisions that were arrived at by the Pacific Yearly Meeting of Friends (Quakers) and which have been endorsed by the local meeting.

First, regarding the death penalty. The Society of Friends has been opposed to this penalty for many years, believing that it is barbaric and ineffectual. The harm is not only to the victims but to those who perpetuate this legalized murder and to the society which condones it. They therefore wish to make known our opposition to Proposition 17 which attempts to circumvent State and U.S. Supreme Court decisions finding the death penalty cruel and unusual punishment. The Pacific Yearly Meeting of Friends urged voters to vote against it.

Secondly, regarding farm workers. The meeting took not of the fact that they are discriminated against both in law and in practice and that they generally live under substandard conditions unworthy of the wealthiest nation on earth. No proper justification for this discrimination, which appears to be racially tinged, was found and the meeting wondered what moral justification there can be for it. They therefore affirm our support of farm workers' efforts to win rights and living conditions which should be theirs. The Pacific Yearly Meeting of Friends urge voters to vote against Proposition 22 which would take away whatfew means of self-help they have while failing to bring them fully within the protections of the law enjoyed by other Americans.

Thirdly, the meeting made known support for the Women's Equal Rights Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. For over 300 years the Society of Friends has offered substantial equality to men and women. Their experience leads them to believe that this equality is God-given and conducive not only to human dignity and non-exploitative relations between individuals but to democracy in all areas of life.

ORDINANCE NO. 422

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF SEASIDE ADDING SECTION 6.9 TO AND REPEALING PARAGRAPH 5, SECTION 4.211 OF THE SEASIDE ZONING ORDINANCE

The City Council of the City of Seaside does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Paragraph 5 of Section 4.211 of the Seaside Zoning Ordinance is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 6.9 is added to the Seaside Zoning Ordinance to read:

SECTION 6.9: Prohibition and Abatement of Out-Door Advertising Display Signs

A. PURPOSE AND INTENT

It is the purpose of these regulations to eliminate excessive and confusing sign displays which do not relate to the premises on which they are located; to eliminate hazards to pedestrians and motorists brought about by distracting sign displays; to ensure that signing is used as identification and not as advertisement; and to preserve and improve the appearance of the City as a place in which to live and work.

It is the intent of these regulations to protect an important aspect of the economic base of the City by preventing the distruction of the natural beauty and environment of the City, which is instrumental in attracting nonresidents who come to visit, trade, vacation or attend conventions; to safeguard and enhance property values; to protect public and private investment in buildings and open spaces; and to protect the public health, safety and general welfare.

B. OFF-PREMISE OUTDOOR ADVERTISING DISPLAY SIGNS PROHIBITED

Legal Notice

Only those outdoor advertising display signs, hereinafter referred to as signs in the sign ordinance, which are either signs designating the name of the owner or occupant of the premises upon which such signs are placed, or identifying such premises; or signs advertising goods manufactured or produced or services rendered on the premises upon which such signs are placed shall be permitted. The following signs shall be prohibited:

1. Any sign identifying a use, facility or service which is not located on the premises.
2. Any sign identifying a product which is not produced, sold or manufactured on the premises.
3. Any sign which advertises or otherwise directs attention to a product, service or activity, event, person, institution or business, which may or may not be identified with a brand name and which occurs or is generally conducted, sold, manufactured, produced or offered elsewhere than on the premises where such sign is located:

C. ABATEMENT OF NONCONFORMING SIGNS

Any sign which is nonconforming in that it does not conform to the regulations embodied in this section shall either be removed or brought into compliance with such requirements within three (3) years dating from the effective date of this section.

D. REMOVAL OF NONCONFORMING SIGNS

Any sign that is in noncompliance with the regulations of this section shall be removed prior to or upon the date designated for removal in paragraph C of this section. If the owner of, or the person or persons responsible for, the sign fails to remove the nonconforming sign, the owner of the premises upon which the sign is located shall be responsible for the removal of the sign and the work shall be done within ninety (90) days following the date of the nonconformance. The procedure for the removal of all nonconforming signs shall be as follows:

1. The Planning Director, after proper notification, may cause the removal of any nonconforming sign and shall, at his discretion, charge the costs incurred against any of the following, each of whom shall be jointly and severally liable for said charges; provided, however, that any decision or determination of the Planning Director may be appealed to the City Council within seven (7) days of the decision. The fee for such appeal shall be set by the City Council.
   a. The permittee.
   b. The owner of the sign.
   c. The owner of the premises on which the sign is located.
   d. The occupant of the premises on which the sign is located.
2. A sign removed by the City shall be held not less than thirty (30) days by the City during which time it may be recovered by the owner upon payment to the City for costs of removal and storage. If not recovered prior to expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the sign and supporting structures shall be declared abandoned and title shall vest in the City and the costs of removal shall be billed to the owner.

This ordinance shall be published once after its passage in the Seaside POST News-Sentinel and shall be in force and take effect thirty (30) days from and after its passage and approval.

Grunsky Gets Support of Public Workers

The Santa Cruz County Public Employees Coordinating Council has announced their unanimous endorsement for the re-election of State Senator Donald L. Grunsky (R-Central Coast Counties).

Charles V. Dick, Chairman of the Santa Cruz County Coordinating Council, said that the body represents approximately 3,000 active and retired school, state, county and special district employees in Santa Cruz County.

Dick said, "Senator Grunsky received our endorsement because of his interest in and support of the needs of public employees in California over the years."

Senator Grunsky has already received a similar endorsement of the Monterey Coordinating Council of Associated California Employees.

The California State Employees Association recently announced that its' political action committee, E.P.I.C., (Employees Political Involvement Committee) has also given Senator Grunsky its' support.
